PI DAY CELEBRATION 2023

Rev. Dr. Joseph Olikkalkoonal, Vice Principal, YIMS Inaugurated 'PI DAY CELEBRATION 2023' organised by Department of Mathematics on 14/03/2023.

About The Department
The Department of Mathematics was started in the year 2017 with IQAC programme in Mathematics. One of the main tasks of the Department is to attract the students to the world of Mathematics through extra curricular activities, that can create interest and enthusiasm among the students.

PI Day

The Pi Day is celebrated every year on Mar 14 to remember the mathematical constant Pi which is an irrational number, but well rounded to the rational number 3.14 whose significant digits are 3, 1 and 4. The number 3 is representing the third month MARCH of the English calendar. People wear the official Pi Day shirts on this date to receive compliments countless. Just like the digits of Pi. Many famous mathematicians such as Leibniz, Fibonacci, Newton and Gauss toiled over Pi, calculated its digits and applied it in numerous areas of Mathematics.
